

Name: _____

Date: _____

Connecting National and World History

Examine the primary source and answer the questions below.

Title: _____

Author: _____

Date: _____

1. What is Randolph protesting? _____

2. What solution does Randolph propose? _____

3. Who is Randolph's audience? How do you know? _____

SOURCE TWO:

Poland, 1941: The German occupying force limits rations for the Jewish residents of the Warsaw Ghetto are limited to 183 calories a day. The population of the ghetto swells to 400,000.

1. How does this event in Europe relate to Randolph's address? _____

2. Which topics in the Scope and Sequence does this comparison address?

3. How will connecting national and global events help your students? _____
